

Shabnam Abbasi

I am a law graduate from the University of Tehran, where I graduated with a GPA of 19.04. As an exceptional talent, I continued my studies in International Trade Law at the master's level. At Novin Insurance Company, I managed over 80 legal cases in the field of insurance disputes, and at Zhin Tour startup, I was involved in drafting and managing various contracts. With a strong interest in international trade, my goal is to play an effective role in international contract management.
